The Archangels

The Feast of the Archangels; Michael, Gabriel and Raphael is 29 Sep. "Then war broke out in heaven; Michael and his angels battled against the dragon. Although the dragon and his angels fought back, they were overpowered and lost their place in heaven." Rev 12:7-8

"Saint Michael the Archangel, defend us this day in battle. Be our protection against the wickedness and snares of the devil. May God rebuke him we humbly pray; and do thou, O prince of the heavenly host, by the Power of God, cast into hell Satan and all evil spirits, who prowl throughout the world seeking the ruin of souls. Amen." - Pope Leo XIII

STEWARDSHIP of TREASURE

Tithes and Offerings

Giving	Dollars
Online Giving	1,230.00
Envelopes/loose check/cash	9,285.10
Children's Tithing	53.00
Growth and Development	155.00
Total for 16-17 Sep	$10,723.10

$5.00

Amount needed to meet our Sep 2023 Parish operating budget
(new amount for 23-24 FY) $87,632.50 *

Sep Tithing and Offering collections to date $37,466.23

Balance needed to meet our Sep needs: $50,166.27

Sep 2023 G&D collected to date$4,386.35

* - This amount is determined by the Parish Finance Council. It is based on the annual cost of Parish operations for the parish year, 01 Jul thru 30 Jun. The annual cost includes items such as the maintenance for our buildings, utilities, all Mass and church supplies, salaries for staff, support for the school...everything right down to the Kleenex provided in the church. The annual amount is then divided by the 12 months in a year to establish the monthly amount necessary. The tithing collections offered by our parishioners each week, our only income, is reported in the spirit of transparency for all. When we fall short in our collections for the needed monthly operating expenses, the difference must be pulled from investments or savings to cover the operating expenses. This impairs our sustainability to 'grow' our parish programs and services in the future.

Don't forget to teach our children how to submit their envelopes weekly! Take one with you to fill out for the following week-end if that is of help instead fixing one on the way into Mass.

Thank you for the privilege of your generosity and support.

EARLY!

Please take notice of the early bulletin submission requirements below:

For the bulletin for 30Sep/01 Oct - please submit item no later than 3:00 pm on 19 Sep.

FROM THE PASTOR'S DESK

Fr. Kerry Ninemire

"JESUS WEPT" Jn 11:35, the shortest verse in the Bible. And even though so short, so powerful. "The One through whom and by whom all things were made and without whom nothing was made (Jn 1:3), that powerful and awesome God wept. His emotional burst comes after he comes to the grave of Lazurus, one of his best friends, and sees there his friends, Martha and Mary, crying. Like us so often in a similar situation, he cannot help himself. He feels deeply. He knows the value of friendship and he hurts so deeply to see them hurt.

Another time Jesus cries is when he arrives on a hill overlooking Jerusalem, knowing that he will enter and they will not listen to him, the Bible says in Luke 19: 41-42, "He wept over it." He so wants what is best for them and for us. I know each of us can feel that pain as well at times with those we love and we seem them entering a path that will lead to more pain.

These two incidents help us appreciate the humanness of Jesus. We can too quickly and too easily stress his divinity, which is definitely there. But first, Jesus' tears tell me that our first response to tough and sad situations should not be to try to fix, to soothe, to remove the pain. Often, it is just okay to enter into it, to feel it. Just as only then Jesus moved on, then for us as well, it is only then time to try to begin to move on. I find it easier to entering into the pain knowing that he enters with me, with us.

May God bless us all.

Father Kerry

Stewards of the Church

Stewards of God's gifts are not passive beneficiaries. We cooperate with God in our own redemption and in the redemption of others. We are also obliged to be stewards of the Church—collaborators and cooperators in continuing the redemptive work of Jesus Christ, which is the Church's essential mission. This mission—proclaiming and teaching, serving and sanctifying—is our task. It is the personal responsibility of each one of us as stewards of the Church. All members of the Church have their own roles to play in carrying out its mission:

- ◆ Parents, who nurture their children in the light of faith;
- ◆ Parishioners, who work in concrete ways to make their parishes true communities of faith and vibrant sources of service to the larger community;
- ◆ All Catholics, who give generous support—time, money, prayers, and personal service according to their circumstances—to parish and diocesan programs
- ◆ and to the universal Church.

(Taken, in part, from the USCCB's Pastoral Letter on Stewardship)

Litany of Humility

O Jesus! Meek and humble of heart, Hear me!
From the desire of being esteemed... Deliver me, Jesus.
From the desire of being extolled...
From the desire of being honored...
From the desire of being praised...
From the desire of being preferred to others...
From the desire of being consulted...
From the desire of being approved...
From the fear of being humiliated...
From the fear of being despised...
From the fear of suffering rebukes...
From the fear of being calumniated...
From the fear of being forgotten...
From the fear of being ridiculed...
From the fear of being wronged...
From the fear of being suspected...
That others may be loved more than I... Jesus, grant me the grace to desire it.
That, in the opinion of the world, others may increase and I may decrease...
That others may be chosen and I set aside...
That others may be praised and I unnoticed...
That others may be preferred to me in everything...
That others may become holier than I, provided that I may become as holy as I should be...
