THE BLESSED VIRGIN MARY AND ADVENT:

Understandably Mary receives much focus during Advent. This is understandable as it was her "yes" that possible the gift of her Son to us. For this reason, she is often described as "The First Disciple." I have always liked the words of the second preface for Advent: "For the oracles of the prophets foretold him, the Virgin Mother longed for him with love beyond all telling..."

Looking to her can help us long and yearn for Christ at a deeper level. We can also be aided by looking at the two major feasts of Mary during Advent. The first we just celebrated, December 8 the Feast of the Immaculate Conception." One of the aspects of this feast that means a lot for me is that I see sin as that which keeps me from being free. Being totally free from sin all of her life enabled Mary to give a totally free "yes" to God when she agreed to be the mother of our Savior. I find motivation in this to being less controlled by my habits, addictions, sins, etc.

Secondly, on this coming Tuesday we will celebrate the feast of our Lady of Guadalupe. While the patroness of the United States is Mary of the Immaculate Conception, the patroness of Mexico and of all the Americas is our Lady of Guadalupe. As December 8 is a holy day of obligation in the United States, December 12 is one in Mexico. Luke 1:48 says, "For he has looked upon his handmaid's lowliness; behold, from now on will all ages call me blessed." The Blessed Virgin appearing to an ordinary native of Mexico in 1531 extending the same favor to the oppressed native peoples as God extended to her can help us do the same.

May we turn to Mary to help us be more free of sin and more sensitive to those who are hurting during these Advent days. She will then help us rejoice as she did: "My soul proclaims the greatness of the Lord; my spirit rejoices in God my savior." (Luke 1:47)

Blessings to all!
Father Kerry

PRAYER FOR THE SICK

God our Father, your Son accepted our sufferings to teach us the virtue of patience in human illness. Hear the prayers we offer for our sick brother/sister. May all who suffer pain, illness, or disease realize that they have been chosen to be saints and know that they are joined to Christ I his suffering for the salvation of the world. We ask this through Christ our Lord. Amen.

The end of the 2023 year is fast approaching and we are looking for your help with the tithing counting each week. Tithing is counted every Monday morning at 9:00 am in Bldg C. If Monday's just won't work for you and would rather do a Sunday, please let me know. We need three parishioners to assist with this task. Counting is always held on a different day if the planned day falls on a holiday.

If you are interested in volunteering with the counting of our tithing donations, please give Carol Tomson a call at 785-238-2841, ext. 203. We can look at the 2024 calendar and see what will work for you.
