PALM SUNDAY, 24 Mar 2024.

There will be only two Masses on Sunday. One at 8:30 am and one at 10:30 am. We will begin Mass in the St. Francis Xavier School gym with the blessing of the palms and Readings. We will process over to the church to continue with the Mass.

Thoughts on Lent: As you know from this past week, I took a few days off this past week. I needed to do that and I coordinated with a priest friend from another diocese. We both find it difficult to coordinate a time, but, unfortunately, spring break provided a time for us. I say "unfortunately", because it is during Lent.

Which leads me to observe that since "spring break" started some years ago, it has always been an interruption during Lent. But that only means we can be like the 3rd, 7th or 9th Station of the Cross. We can back up and give these last two weeks of Lent a real emphasis. Then, our Holy Week culminating in Easter will be very special.

One way to do this is take the practice encouraged with Rice Bowls very seriously. Let us for sure eat a little less at some meals (fasting), place the money saved in the Rice Bowl to benefit the poor (almsgiving), and then pray for those who benefit (prayer).

Again, we will bring them forward in procession on Holy Thursday. As Jesus washed the feet of the Apostles, we will "wash the feet of the poor."

Mass for Anointing of the Sick: We invite persons who are experiencing some real limitations due to health, persons who are nearing an operation or persons who are having to accept a disability to attend Mass on Wednesday evening, March 20, at 5:30 pm. At this Mass, we will celebrate the Sacrament of the Anointing of the sick. This includes laying on of the hands and anointing.

SAVE THE DATE!!!
MAKE THE TIME!!!

Please return your filled Rice Bowls at the Holy Thursday Mass on 27 March.

The filling of the Rice Bowls is a gift of almsgiving for our brothers and sisters in Christ who are in need.

If you want to make a monetary contribution, please mark the outside of the envelope "CRS - Rice Bowl" so it can be sent to the Catholic Relief Society.

NEW ALTAR LITURGICAL SPACE PRESENTATION

The Bishop has directed that our present altar be lowered for safety purposes and more fitting to the modern liturgy. For more understanding, all are invited to a presentation by Fr. Frank Coady on Sunday, March 17, at 2:00 pm. He will speak about liturgical space in general, a focus on the new altar and general thoughts on Lenten Paschal Mystery. This would be very good for all our liturgical ministers, i.e., ushers, lectors, and Extraordinary Ministers.

CATHOLIC DIOCESE of SALINA

All Invited: Corey Lyon, our chancellor, wrote the following explanation and invitation to attend the Chrism Mass on March 21 at 11:30 am at the Cathedral.

As we approach the solemn celebration of the Chrism Mass, I write to you to emphasize the significance of this sacred liturgy and to extend a heartfelt invitation for your participation.

1. The Chrism Mass is a special occasion where the bishop, together with his priests, renews the priestly promises made on the day of Ordination. This act holds great value as it allows priests to reaffirm their fidelity to Christ, who has chosen them as His ministers. Through this renewal, priests strengthen their commitment to serving the Christian community and living out their vocation with zeal and dedication.

2. During the Chrism Mass, the oils used in various sacraments are blessed and consecrated. The oil of the sick and the oil of the catechumens, along with the sacred Chrism, are symbols of the fullness of Christ's Priesthood and the unity of the Church. These blessed oils play a vital role in the sacramental life of the Church, particularly in Baptism, Confirmation, Anointing of the Sick, and Ordination.

3. The Chrism Mass is a preparation for the celebration of the Easter Triduum. It serves as a moment of spiritual renewal and unity for the clergy and the faithful, highlighting the importance of the priesthood and the sacraments in our journey of faith.

Therefore, I invite you to join Bishop Vincke at the Chrism Mass, where he will bless the oils and our priests will renew their commitment to Christ and His Church. Your presence and participation in this liturgy will not only enrich your own spiritual life but also contribute to the communal prayer and unity of our diocesan family. While an RSVP is not required, it is appreciated so that we can best prepare for the light luncheon to follow the Mass. You may RSVP by phone (785)827-8746 or by using this link <https://salinadiocese.typeform.com/ChrismMass>

Lent: I hope your Lenten season is going well as we continue to ‘fall’ and get back up again over and over.

Saints & Solemnities: Many of you look forward to celebrating your Irish heritage with the Feast of St. Patrick on March 17...no dispensations necessary this year as it falls on a Sunday! We can also look forward to reprieve from Lent to celebrate the Solemnity of St. Joseph, Spouse of the Blessed Virgin Mary on March 19.

Holy Week: Holy Week is the most solemn and glorious week in Christianity, the pinnacle of the liturgical year. This is because Holy Week, which begins on Palm Sunday, commemorates the final week of Our Lord's life, the very purpose for which Christ was born. Sundown on Holy Thursday to sundown on Easter Sunday is considered the most solemn part of the liturgical year. This period is referred to as the Easter Triduum. The Latin word triduum, literally means three-days, coming from tres ("three") + dies ("day").
